University of Utah Lacrosse Winter Exposure Camp for Boys Grades 6-12

Our Winter Exposure Camp presented by University of Utah Men's Lacrosse will be the premier destination in the country for lacrosse players looking to take their game to the next level. We will feature TOP Division 1 Coaches to teach, coach and look for future talent for their rosters along with Major League Players. We will emphasize key components for lacrosse excellence which include the spiritual, mental, physical, and tactical parts of the game. Players will learn the pillars of Utah Lacrosse while competing hard, fast, smart, and together. And most importantly...WE WILL HAVE FUN!

Don't miss out on this GREAT OPPORTUNITY to learn from the best College Coaches and Professional Players in the country!

University of Utah Lacrosse Coaches

Brian Holman

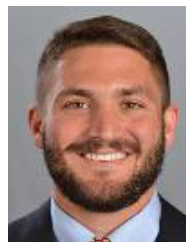

Brian Holman is a veteran coach and former standout lacrosse goalkeeper at Johns Hopkins University and the NEW University of Utah Head Coach for the Utes. Holman served eight years as an assistant for the University of North Carolina men's lacrosse program. In his eight seasons, the Tar Heels won an ACC Championship in 2013 and a National Championship in 2016.

Holman's lacrosse pedigree is a distinguished one indeed as a player and coach. He has been involved in collegiate lacrosse at all levels for the past 35 years as a player, coach and parent.
